

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Girl Scouts of Northern New Jersey will be recognized as the premier leadership development program that nurtures, inspires and empowers girls.

---

Position Title: Mobile Program Manager
Salary Grade: Exempt, Salary Grade 7 – Full Time
Reports To: Director of Program
Location: Paramus
Schedule: Nights/Weekends (12pm-7pm) or (1pm-8pm)

Position Summary: This position is a newly created position for the Mobile Program Delivery initiative. The Mobile Program Delivery initiative is designed to bring programming to girls who are unable to attend scheduled events to designated sites. The Mobile Program Manager retains girl/adult membership by ensuring that the Girl Scout Leadership Experience (GSLE) is accessible to all girls and qualified adults. The manager will develop and deliver high quality mobile programming focused on STEAM (science, technology, engineering, arts and math) the outdoors, life skills development, entrepreneurial, career and college readiness.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Develops, implements, and evaluates elements of a forward-thinking, gender reinforcing, youth-driven, community based out-of-school time program for K-12 grade students in the areas of STEAM, the outdoors, life skills development, entrepreneurialism, career and college readiness.
- Collaborates with the Director of Program to strategically plan new programming to address emerging interests and needs of girls and their families.
- Provides direct programming in which girls will sample opportunities to lead and direct projects.
- Performs program evaluations and timely reporting, ensuring that program events and activities have annual work plans with measurable outcomes.
- Represents the council at community meetings and gatherings relevant to the GSLE.
- Provides the Director of Program with regular analysis of program participation, outcomes, and financial performance.
- Applies expert knowledge of girls, girl issues, and the GSLE to staff and volunteers in delivering high-quality program experiences to a growing number of diverse girls.
- Plans, designs and delivers innovative grant funded programs relevant for intended audience. Works collaboratively with staff colleagues to deliver and report on outcomes of grant funded programs.
- Helps foster and implement the council's policy to strive for a volunteer, employee and program participant population reflective of the area's religious, racial, ethnic, social and economic diversity.
- Performs other duties as assigned.

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Girl Scouts of Northern New Jersey will be recognized as the premier leadership development program that nurtures, inspires and empowers girls.

Staff members are accountable for achieving their performance goals that collectively enable GSNNJ to reach our council goals. Each staff member is expected to take an active role in all areas of operations, especially by being alert to opportunities to identify and engage potential volunteers, girl members, donors, vendors, collaborators, etc. and providing contact information to the appropriate staff person.

Each employee is a representative of Girl Scouts of Northern New Jersey. Others form their impressions of GSNNJ based, in part, on their interaction with employees. Every personal contact made by a GSNNJ employee could be a current or potential donor; thus, these impressions can influence donor actions. Each employee is expected to take an active role in development by being alert to opportunities to identify potential new donors and providing contact information to the Chief Development and Communications Officer. On occasion, employees may be asked to participate in site visits and/or follow-up calls with contacts.

Education, Skills, Experience Requirement:

- Minimum of a Bachelor's degree and experience in youth development, child psychology, education, social work or related field preferred, working within youth, teen, or family programming.
- A positive attitude, integrity and interest in helping girls reach their fullest potential.
- Effective verbal and written communications skills; detail-oriented and organized.
- Strong community relationships, relationship management, effective outreach relationship skills, and problem-solving skills.
- Knowledge of program development and evaluation methodologies.
- Ability to be creative and flexible in responding to changing priorities and emerging needs.
- Ability to manage time effectively, prioritize and meet deadlines, and to manage several activities simultaneously.
- Ability to work independently with limited supervision.
- Ability to work nights and weekends.
- Ability to perform a variety of physical activities with program participants.
- Ability to lift and move up to thirty (30) pounds.
- Membership in GSUSA is required upon employment and annually thereafter.
- Ability to travel occasionally throughout the jurisdiction to attend meetings during the day/evening/weekend.
- Valid driver's license, reliable vehicle and auto insurance.

---

Employee Signature

---

Date

---

Supervisor Signature

---

Date