Room Makeover Challenge Explained

The Psychology of Color

Decorators often turn to these color “personalities” when deciding how to paint a room.

calming

cool and restful vibrant and dramatic lively, especially for dull rooms lacking sunlight warm

Project 1: Redesign your room on paper, then for real

Using a measuring tape, measure the furniture in your room and write down the dimensions. Then draw your furniture to scale (1-inch equals 1 foot). Cut out your drawings and rearrange them to see how many ways you can rearrange your room. With permission, rearrange your room for real using the plan you created on paper.

Project 2: Get painting

Get creative and paint something to accent your room makeover. If you choose to paint the walls, please get permission first.

Project 3: Sewing it up

Project 4: That fabric is dyeing for a makeover

Dye or tie dye curtains, bedding, etc. with permission.
