Issue #7

Troop Cookie Volunteers, we're well into Cookie Season!

With cookies out in the community, Cookie Cupboards open for restocking, and Booth Sales season around the corner, girls are making great progress toward their goals.

Thank you for everything you're doing behind the scenes, including managing eBudde, coordinating pickups, and supporting families. Your leadership keeps the season running smoothly.

In this issue, you'll find helpful reminders and updates to guide you through the weeks ahead. We appreciate all you do!

In this issue:

- New Council-secured Booth Sale Locations
- Digital Cookie Girl Delivery Option
- GSNNJ Cookie Cupboards

Council-secured Booth Sale Locations

Great news Troop Cookie Volunteers, we are adding additional council-secured booth sale locations. Troops can begin selecting from these on Thursday, Feb. 26 at 7:00 p.m.

To make your selection, login to eBudde at least 10 minutes ahead of the opening time of 7:00 p.m. and be ready to click on the Booth Sales tab to select your location of choice. Troops are limited to choosing 1 date/timeslot per location on opening day. Troops may select additional dates/timeslots beginning Friday, Feb. 27, if they are still available.

Girl Delivery Option

Girl Delivery Orders After Initial Order

Girl Scouts can continue offering the Girl Delivery option to customers through April 7.

How it works:

- Customers select Girl Delivery through the Girl Scout's Digital Cookie site.
- Caregivers approve the order in Digital Cookie.
- Payment is processed online.
- Cookies are delivered in person (instead of shipped).

For Troop Cookie Volunteers:

- Approved orders appear in eBudde.
  - You can find these orders on the "Girl Orders" tab.
  - Click on the girl's line to see "orders after IO."
- Make sure that the troop has enough inventory to fill the order (or place a Cookie Cupboard order if needed).
- Transfer cookies to the girl in eBudde once distributed to keep inventory accurate.

Girl Delivery is a great way for girls to reach more customers while building their business skills! If you have a real go-getter in your Troop, parents are welcome to pick up additional cookie inventory from a Cookie Cupboard, however the troop must first add the order in eBudde on the transactions tab.

Cookie Cupboards are Open

The GSNNJ Cookie Cupboards are open for business!

Need extra cookies? We've got you covered! Troops can order additional cookies in full cases or single packages at all Cookie Cupboard locations. Troop Cookie Volunteers can designate a person other than themselves to pick up and sign for the order. All orders must be placed in eBudde at least 24 hours prior to desired pickup date/time.

To place a Cookie Cupboard order, go to the "Transactions" tab in eBudde, click the "add+" button, choose your location, date, and time, enter the order and save. All orders remain pending until picked up. We will only contact you if there is a problem with the order. Click here for a helpful video on adding a cupboard order.
