

Hello, Troop Fall Product Program Managers!

Thank you for all you have done so far to make the 2024 Fall Product Program a success. This newsletter is designed with you in mind and is full of helpful and timely information regarding the Fall Product Program.

Issue #3

There's Still Time!

Although the in-person portion of the program is ending October 21, the direct-shipped portion will remain open through December 1. Customers can support Girl Scouts and your Troop by purchasing direct-shipped nuts and candy, magazine subscriptions, Tervis Tumblers, Girl Scout themed BarkBox, personalized stationary products, and scented candles. Girl Scouts will earn rewards based on sales through December 1 and Troops will continue to earn proceeds on every item sold through the end of the Fall Product Program.

Congratulations to our Avatar Contest Winners!

Paper Order Entry

All orders from the nut order card must be manually entered into the M2 site. Parents/caregivers must enter these orders by midnight on October 21.

Troops can add/edit paper orders until midnight on October 22.

Please note that online orders are already accounted for and should not be manually added.

To add/edit paper orders, click on the "paper order entry" link from your Troop's dashboard in the M2 site. Select the girl for whom you need to add an order, enter her totals for each item and save.

Money Matters

- Troops must have a bank account. Contact GSNNJ Customer Care for additional details or assistance.
- Payment is collected at time of delivery for order card sales. Customers should make checks payable to your Troop.
- Deposit all monies collected into your Troop bank account.
- View the Troop Sales Summary in the M2 system for the most up to date sales information including proceeds earned and amount due to GSNNJ.
- If your banking information has changed or your are new Troop, please click here to complete the ACH authorization form.

Remind your Girl Scouts to choose their rewards!
